

A Beginner's Guide to the New World Order

by Jeremy James

“...thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing;
and knowest not that thou art wretched,
and miserable, and poor, and blind,
and naked:” - Revelation 3:17

PREFACE

The horn on automobiles was once called a klaxon. Perhaps this word is still used in some places. It was coined around 1908 to designate this new device. When it became apparent that pedestrians needed a loud clear warning that they were standing in the path of an oncoming vehicle, the klaxon was introduced. Seemingly the name came from the Greek word, Klazo meaning “I shriek.”

Maybe the driver shrieked first and, if the pedestrian didn’t hear him and move aside, the pedestrian shrieked. One way or the other, someone shrieked.

This compilation of photos with satirical captions should serve as a klaxon. The sharp edge of a shriek may be missing, but the warning is no less vehement. Perhaps we can think of it as a muffled shriek.

Unless people wake up and see the deadly threat posed by the coming ‘New World Order’, they will be mown down. Vigilance and common sense can spell the difference between survival and death.

Get out your King James Bible and heed what it says. All of its End Time prophecies relate to actual events. Its words should be taken as a klaxon call from God.

"My dear fellow,
don't you realize
my entire face
is a mask?!"

they'll let us keep

Catholics, don't expect your church to help you. The Vatican works for the New World Order.
